

News Release

For Immediate Release: February 25, 2015

Career Centers Close due to Inclement Weather

MONTGOMERY – Career Centers across north and central Alabama are closed Wednesday due to the threat of inclement weather.

The list of Career Centers affected includes: Alabaster, Albertville, Alexander City, Anniston, Birmingham (including Jefferson State Community College and ADOL Inspections), Blountsville, Decatur, Fayette, Fort Payne, Gadsden, Hamilton, Hanceville, Huntsville, Jasper, Pell City, Roanoke, Scottsboro, Talladega, and Tuscaloosa.

The Tuscaloosa Career Center will open today at 1 p.m. Some Career Centers are scheduled to reopen on Thursday, February 26. Career Centers in Alexander City, Decatur, Fayette, and Hamilton will open at 8 a.m. on Thursday, while the ADOL Inspections office in Birmingham will open at 10 a.m.

Announcements regarding further Career Center openings will be made as information becomes available and will also be posted on the Alabama Department of Labor's Facebook (www.facebook.com/AlabamaDIR) and Twitter (www.twitter.com/al\_labor) accounts.

###

Media members needing more information may contact Will Whatley at (334) 353-1548.