

Alabama Department of Industrial Relations

News Release

For Immediate Release: October 5, 2010

Alabama Department of Industrial Relations Obtaining Convictions for Unemployment Compensation Fraud

MONTGOMERY – Alabama Department of Industrial Relations Director Tom Surtees announced today that the Department has successfully prosecuted several Alabamians for unemployment compensation fraud. The following individuals were charged with violating the Alabama Unemployment Compensation Law by making false statements in claims for benefits.

- Donna Cork, of Dothan, was tried in Houston County District Court on September 28, 2010. An investigation by the Industrial Relations Benefit Payment Control Section determined that Cork received a total of $2,330.00 in benefits to which she was not entitled.

Cork pled guilty and was sentenced to one year in jail, which was suspended for one year. She was also placed on probation for two years and ordered to pay restitution in the amount of benefits received illegally.

- Shayla Swain, of Jacksonville, was tried in Calhoun County District Court on September 28, 2010. An investigation by the Industrial Relations Benefit Payment Control Section determined that Swain received a total of $3,704.00 in benefits to which she was not entitled.

Swain pled guilty and was sentenced to 12 months in jail, which was suspended for 24 months. She was also ordered to pay court costs and restitution in the amount of benefits received illegally.

- Anthony Prewitt, of Foley, was tried in Baldwin County District Court on September 8, 2010. An investigation by the Industrial Relations Benefit Payment Control Section determined that Prewitt received a total of $5,596.00 in benefits to which he was not entitled.

Prewitt was found guilty and will be sentenced on November 18.

“We at the Department of Industrial Relations want people to know that we are aggressively pursuing cases of unemployment compensation fraud,” said Surtees.

“Especially in these economic times, we want to make sure that all who are entitled to benefits receive them. But at the same time, we will not allow those who deliberately try to defraud the system to go unpunished. We are working with local District Attorney Offices to make sure that we can identify and prosecute those individuals who are committing these crimes.”

Suspected unemployment compensation fraud may be reported to the Department of Industrial Relations by calling 1-800-392-8019.

###

Members of the media seeking more information should contact Public Information Officer Tara Hutchison at (334) 242-8616.